

Did you know that Under Wisconsin law, bicycles are vehicles?

That means that bicyclists on the road have the same rights and responsibilities as drivers of motor vehicles. If you know the laws that apply to driving a car, you know the laws that apply to bicycling. By obeying traffic signs and signals, following all other rules of the road and bicycling in a predictable manner, you'll find more courtesy and respect on the road.

Find tips on bicycling safety here:

<http://wisconsinbikefed.org/for-your-community/share-be-aware/biking/>