JEFFERSON — The Jefferson County Fair now is accepting applications for the 2016 Fairest of the Fair.

The Jefferson County Fairest of the Fair competition is filled with interviews, radio commercials, parades, the fair itself and a chance to earn the title of State Fairest of the Fair when the winner goes on to compete at the Annual Wisconsin Association of Fairs Convention in January.

The 163rd Jefferson County Fair will take place from Wednesday, July 8, to Sunday, July 12.

In the Fairest of the Fair competition, contestants are evaluated on professional appearance, community activities, personality, poise, fair knowledge and experience, speaking ability, their written application, the personal interview and radio commercial.

All Fairest contestants help promote and represent the fair for the entire five days.

Final selection will be made by the judges on Sunday, July 12, at the fair.

The winner will represent the 2016 Jefferson County Fair from July 6-10, 2016.

In addition, the Jefferson County Fairest of the Fair also will move on to the state competition in January 2017 to compete for the title of State Fairest of the Fairs.

Applications are available at JCFairPark.com or in the Fair Office and are due on Monday, May 18, 2015.

For further information about the Fairest of the Fair program, contact the Fair Office at (920) 674-7148.
